

Hello friends, Easter Bunny here. I've left you this basket to get your party started. Make sure everyone gets an egg, but don't open them. I'm going to tell you a story and when I say left, pass the egg to the left and when I say right pass the egg to the right. Ready? Alright.

This morning I woke up at the RIGHT time and I brushed my RIGHT ear, then my LEFT ear. Going into the bathroom, I brushed my RIGHT tooth, and then my LEFT tooth. I then grabbed just the RIGHT basket and packed it tight and LEFT nothing out, but packed everything RIGHT here in my basket.

Everything was ready and I would have LEFT my house RIGHT then, but something wasn't RIGHT, I had LEFT something. That's RIGHT, I almost LEFT my basket. So I grabbed this basket, RIGHT by my door and LEFT at once to come RIGHT to you. I then started hopping RIGHT to your home. I hopped to my LEFT and RIGHT and to my LEFT again. Stopping RIGHT at the crosswalk, I looked LEFT, then RIGHT, then LEFT again and then crossed the street and made it RIGHT here to your home. There was nothing LEFT to do but hop my way RIGHT to your room.

I made sure I LEFT it hidden, so you could find it RIGHT in time for your party. I LEFT some treats and I LEFT some games and prizes, RIGHT here for you. But make sure you play the games RIGHT and don't leave any eggs or treats LEFT. I hope I'm RIGHT and you enjoy the party I LEFT for you. Now is the RIGHT time to start the party and open up the your eggs.

Love, Easter Bunny

Copyright
Homemade-Preschool.com

Copyright Homemade-Preschool.com

FUN
WORKSHEETS

HOMEMADE
Preschool

>Language Worksheets

Group Egg Pass

- RULES - Sit children in a circle.
- Give each child an Easter egg, with a prize inside.
 - Read the letter.
 - Have the children pass the eggs to the left or right.
 - When finished, let them open the eggs.