

Pluto Fact Sheet

PLUTO

- SOLAR SYSTEM -

Circle Pluto, which is 9th from the sun:

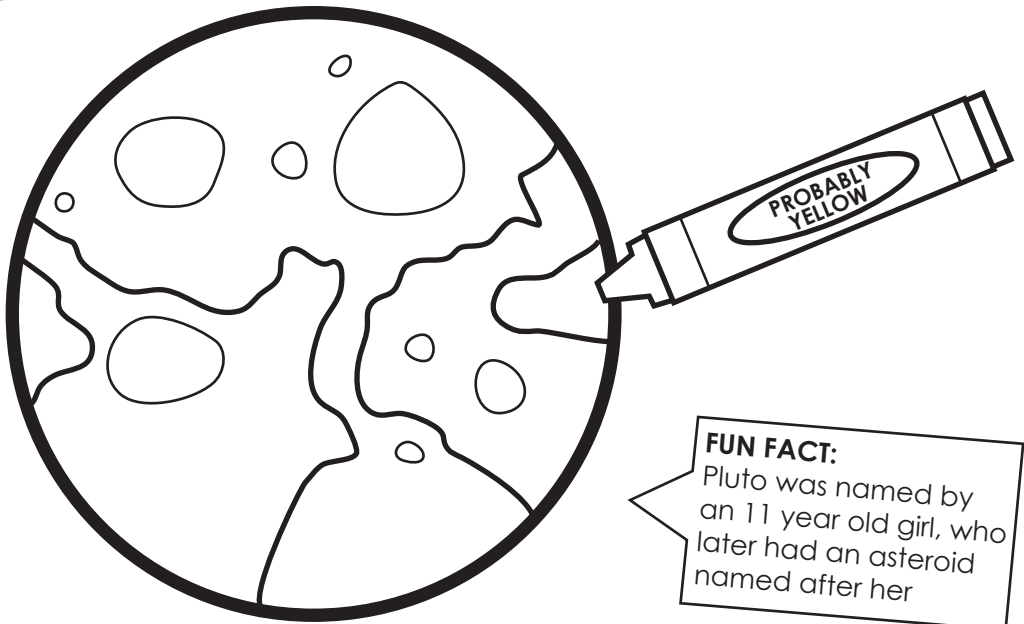

SUN

SURFACE:
Since Pluto is so far away, its surface is still a bit of a mystery that is being studied

ORBIT:
Pluto does not orbit the sun in a circle and is sometimes closer to the sun than Neptune

TEMPERATURE:
Pluto has one of the coldest surfaces with temperatures around -375°F

COLD HOT

FUN FACT:
Pluto was named by an 11 year old girl, who later had an asteroid named after her

- SIZE -

Circle which one is bigger:

PLUTO EARTH

DWARF PLANET

In 2006, Pluto was changed from being called a planet, to being a dwarf planet. Pluto is now considered the largest object in the Kuiper Belt, which is full of trillions of similar objects.