

Read Across America Passports

- HELP - Explain that reading can take you on wonderful adventures.
- Color and cut out the suitcase piece.
 - Tape or glue the sides together, leaving the top open.
 - Print out how many passport pages you want, then cut out.
- CHILD - After reading a book, color and fill in a passport.
- Place the passports into the suitcase.

Read Across America Day Fun Facts

Read Across America Day started on March 2, 1998, on the birthday of Dr. Seuss. It is a day to celebrate and promote reading books.

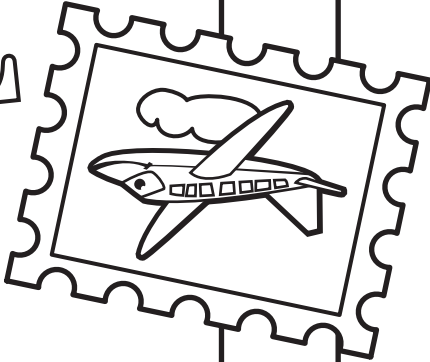

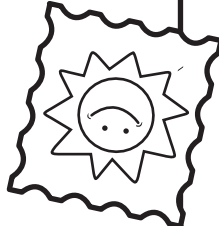

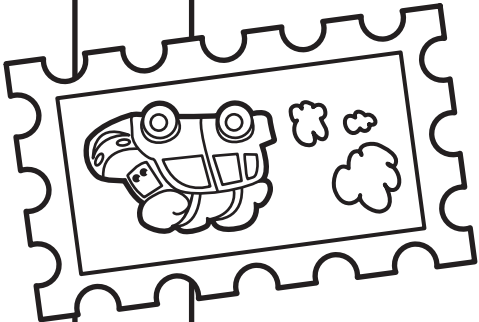

USA

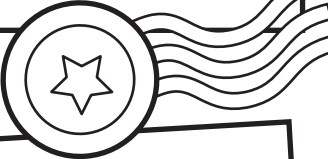

Copyright Homemade-Preschool.com

TRAVEL

Copyright Homemade-Preschool.com

Book Title

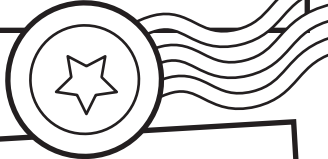

Draw a picture of where the story takes place

List the main characters

Draw an exciting part of the story

Book Title

Draw a picture of the main characters

Write where the story takes place

Draw an exciting part of the story

Book Title

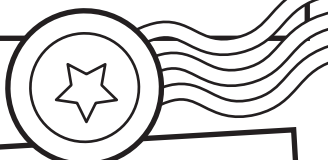

Draw a picture of where the story takes place

List the main characters

Draw an exciting part of the story

Book Title

Draw a picture of the main characters

Write where the story takes place

Draw an exciting part of the story